WORKSHOP

ACTING WITH CAMERAS

August 23, 2014* – 9:00am to 5pm

Participant fee: $150

To help the actor maintain professionalism in front of the camera, The Canadian Society of Cinematographers is offering a one day workshop on the art of acting with the camera.

The course will be conducted by a director of photography who will share their knowledge of working with professional film and television series actors so that the participant can gain valuable experience necessary to work with various camera lenses and learn how to be at home in front of the camera.

PARTICIPANTS WILL BE INSTRUCTED IN:

- ▶ Finding your light
- ▶ Axis/Eyeline
- ▶ Working with camera movements;
i.e. standing-up/walking
- ▶ How to preserve energy and adjust acting with different lenses
- ▶ Camera team crew members and their functions
- ▶ How to help the camera team
- ▶ The role of a director of photography (DOP)
- ▶ How to approach a DOP
- ▶ Identify film equipment and their functions
- ▶ Safety

This one day workshop will be interactive with each participant going on-camera to better familiarize themselves with the various lenses used for close-ups, medium shots, etc. Participants will work on a set, with multiple cameras and a full camera crew including a director of photography. The workshop will be held at William F. White International, 800 Islington Avenue, Toronto.
